RE. RELEASE OF CAUVERY WATERS TO TAMIL NADU

SHRIMATI JAYANTHI NATARAJAN: (Tamil Nadu): Madam, we have to raise an important issue regarding the supply of the Cauvery waters to Tamil Nadu.. (Interruptions)...

SHRI V. NARAYANASAMY (Pondicherry). Madam, I raised the issue of supply of the Cauvery waters to Tamil Nadu . (Interruptions) .. Madam, I already raised the issue during Question Hour. . (Interruptions)...

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN. No, please . (Interruptions) Please go back to your seats. (Interruptions) You can raise the issue from your seats (Interruptions) Please go back to your seats (Interruptions) Please go back to your seats and make your mentions (Interruptions) Please go back to your seats and raise your issues; I can hear you (Interruptions). Please go back; otherwise, I won't listen (Interruptions) I won't listen to you (Interruptions) . Please go back. (Interruptions)... Go back, back... (Interruptions)... I said, "Please go back."... (Interruptions)... Please go back... (Interruptions).. This is not proper . (Interruptions). Please take your seats (Interruptions) I will hear every one of you provided you speak from your seats It is not proper to come to the well, howsoever serious a problem may be I can hear you more properly and the Government will take note of it, and everybody will take note of it if (Interruptions)

[The Deputy Chairman]

SHRI V. GOPALSAMY (Tamil Nadu)· No, no. (Interruptions)

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN Go back. I am not listening (Interruptions) I say once again: go back to your seats I am not giving any instructions to the Government. Please go back (Interruptions) Go back, Tamil Nadu . (Interruptions) Go back Take your seats. Anybody speaking from his seat I will permit . (Interruptions). Please sit down. Just a minute. Please take your seats However serious the matter might be, if you speak from your seats it can be heard and the Government will take note of it It doesn't mean that you should come to the well (Interruptions) Jayanthi Natarajan (Interruptions) How can all be there? आप बैठिए ,तशरीफ रखिए । आज तो फर्क हो गया (व्यवधान) I don't realise in this noise that now. I have to look this side . (Interruptions)

SHRI M. S GURUPADASWAMY (Karnataka)· On a point of order

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN Mr Gurupadaswamy, let her make her... (Interruptions) What is it?

SHRI M. S. GURUPADASWAMY My point of order is this (Interruptions)

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN· There is no issue for discussion before the House. So there can be no point of order

SHRI M. S. GURUPADASWAMY: I know the issue they are going to raise.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN. You know it? I don't know it. (Interruptions) I don't recognize anything. (Interruptions) Please let me handle. I am sorry Please sit down.

SHRI M S. GURUPADASWAMY: I am on a point of order. (Interruptions) Madam, please hear me.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN· A point of order should be raised on an issue. There is no issue before the House. Please sit down. (Interruptions) I say you keep quiet. Please sit down.

SHRI M. S. GURUPADASWAMY: You have allowed them to raise an issue I am objecting to that.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: I don't know what they are going to say

SHRI M. S. GURUPADASWAMY· All right, I will come to it later. (Interruptions)

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Please take your seats. I am promising every one to raise the issue.

I will give you permission, Mr. Gururpadaswamy (Interruptions) Whether you speak from this side or that side you can speak. No problem. You cannot have a point of order until and unless there is an issue before the House. There is no discussion before the House You cannot raise a point of order I said the same thing to Mr Gurupadaswamy. The same rule is for everybody. Sit down (Interruptions)

SHRI T R BALU (Tamil Nadu): Please allow Mr. Gopalsamy.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN· I will allow him

SHRIMATI JAYANTHI NATARAJAN· Madam, I want to raise a very important issue.
(Interruptions)

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN Order, please. You can answer her if you want to. But let her speak.

SHRI V GOPALSAMY On this issue, we have no difference of opinion (Interruptions).

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN. Mr. Narayanasamy, let her speak. I have identified Mrs. Jayanthi Natarajan). Please take your seat. Wherever you sit, I can recognise you and your voice Let her speak.

SHRIMATI JAYANTHI NATARAJAN Madam, I am very surprised that Gurupadaswamyji is objecting to my even speaking.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN. Doesn't matter. You speak.

SHRIMATI JAYANTHI NATARAJAN The reason why I am saying it, Madam, is that it is a humanitarian problem. We all know that the question of Cauvery waters is a moot point. It is a question of dispute between two States. We have our reasons, and the State of Karnataka have their own arguments, and the Tribunal has held in a certain way. Now, Madam, we are not for a minute questioning what the Tribunal is saying. We will raise our arguments before the Tribunal. The question now, Madam, is one of humanitarian thing. More than Rs. 750 crores worth of standing crops are withering away in the State of Tamil Nadu. The whole economy is in question. The people are starving for water. And we are requesting as a humanitarian gesture that the people of Karnataka should release this water to us. Therefore, Madam, we want to bring it to the notice of the Prime Minister. We want the Prime Minister to come here and make a statement on the floor of the House. The Central Government should intervene and see to it that this water is released. Madam, this has been happening every year. Every year, Madam, the water is being released at this point to save the standing crops This is a purely humanitarian thing, and the people of Karnataka should respond. We demand, therefore, Madam, the Prime Minister should come here, make a statement on the floor of the House, and tell us in what way he is going to intervene to see that the problem is solved. Madam, water is a national resource. And this is something that has to be shared among all of us. We want to know what the Central Government is going to do. They have to take emergent steps to see that the standing crop is saved. The whole economy of Tamil Nadu is at stake today. And the people of Tamil Nadu are standing here before this Government. The Government has to come forward immediately with a statement and tell us what they are going to do in this matter. They have to intervene in this matter. Thank you, Madam.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN Mr. Gopalsamy. (Interruptions) Mr Subramanian Swamy, after we settle the water problem, then you can raise your point. If you were not a Minister, you would be a party, I am sure.

SHRI M. S. GURUPADASWAMY: Madam, you wanted me to raise the point of order after the issue is raised. May I raise the point of order? (Interruptions) Let there be a discussion. I have no objection at all.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: You want to raise it now?

SHRI M. S. GURUPADASWAMY: Yes. Madam, the issue of sharing some water by Karnataka with Tamil Nadu is raised by the hon. Member. Karnataka Government has been releasing the water even in the past as she has already admitted. The matter was before the Tribunal. This matter also was before the Tribunal. Only the other day, just three or four days back, the Tribunal has given its verdict on the issues. And now on the floor of this House, this is being raised. I think, it is for you to decide whether the decision given by the Tribunal. (Interruptions). I have not finished. It is for you to decide whether the issue that has been settled by the Tribunal can be raised again here.

SHRI V. NARAYANASAMY: It is only on technical ground he is raising the point of order. (Interruptions).

SHRI M. S. GURUPADASWAMY. They should also realise about Karnataka; there are compulsions. (Interruptions). The available water has got to be shared, but they have to take up with Karnataka Government. You have got to take it up with Karnataka, not here. Therefore, my point of order is, the matter has been decided and settled by the tribunal. There is no scope to raise the issue on the floor of the House. Let them take up the matter with the Government of Karnataka.

SHRI V. GOPALSAMY: Madam, I would like to draw the attention of the Government and of the Prime Minister to this very important issue in Tamil Nadu, because Tanjore is the granary of my State and if our crops are not protected, it will bring indescribable misery to the farmers and it will also definitely damage the economy of our State. Under these circumstances, Tamil Nadu Chief Minister sought immediate intervention of the Prime Minister to get Karnataka release at least 20 TMC of water in Cauvery to save the standing crops. In a telex message sent to the Prime Minister, I quote from the telex message, the request was made: "Karnataka Government has not released water in Cauvery legitimately due to Tamil Nadu for the past several months resulting in very poor storage in Tamil Nadu reservoir. Water now available in the reservoir is totally inadequate. (Interruptions) to save the standing crops in the delta. Storage position in Karnataka is quite good. (Interruptions). My personal request....

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Don't read out the whole thing. I would not permit you.

SHRI V. GOPALSAMY What is wrong in it? (Interruptions) It is very important. Why are you objecting to it? (Interruptions).

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Don't you speak to the Chair this way; otherwise I will object to the entire thing Please sit down. (Interruptions).

SHRI V. GOPALSAMY: This is a message given to the Government and to the Prime Minister... (Interruptions) This House should know that the message has been given to the Prime Minister; this Rajya Sabha should know. Therefore, this is very important. Why are you objecting to it? My personal request to the Chief Minister of Karnataka is . (Interruptions)

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Prime Minister is in the other House. We have our Minister for Parliamentary Affairs; he is listening to you and he will convey. Mr. Subramanian Swamy is here.

SHRI V. GOPALSAMY: But I am bound to reply to the point raised by Mr Gurupadaswamy . (Interruptions)

SHRI V. NARAYANASAMY: What do we do? Water is not being released for Tamil Nadu, and because water is not being made available to our State, the people are suffering... (Interruptions). Therefore, we want immediate intervention for release of water to our State.

SHRI M. S. GURUPADASWAMY: There are compulsions in Karnataka also. (Interruptions)

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Mr. Gopalsamy, you complete it. (Interruptions)

SHRI M S. GURUPADASWAMY: Let them take up the matter with the Government of Karnataka. (Interruptions)

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Mr. Gopalsamy, please complete what you want to say. (Interruptions)

SHRI V. GOPALSAMY: He made a reference to the Tribunal. Therefore, I am entitled to give my view on this. (Interruptions) He made a reference to the Tribunal. (Interruptions) The Tribunal has passed orders, of course, that it was not authorised to grant interim relief and that it was not one of the terms of reference. (Interruptions) Of course, due to technical reasons, it is not possible to get relief from the Tribunal. In the circumstances, therefore, the Tamil Nadu Government appeals to the Prime Minister to use his good offices with the Karnataka Government and persuade them to release at least 20 TMC feet of water to Tamil Nadu. The Karnataka Government is being run by the Congress Party. The Chandra Shekhar Government has very good relationship with them. Therefore, we urge upon the Prime Minister to use his good offices. (Interruptions)

SHRI V NARAYANASAMY: Why did not the DMK Government do it? (Interruptions)

SHRI V. GOPALSAMY: It is the duty of the Prime Minister to save the standing crops in the Cauvery Delta. (Interruptions)

SHRI V. NARAYANASAMY: Why did not the DMK Government recommend for an interim award? (Interruptions)

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: All of you are raising the same issue. At least, you should allow each other to be listened to. (Interruptions) You are raising the same issue which Mrs. Jayanthi Natarajan and others are raising. At least, you should allow each other to be heard. (Interruptions)

SHRI V. GOPALSAMY: Mrs. Jayanthi Natarajan raised the issue.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Do you support it or not? (Interruptions)

SHRI V. GOPALSAMY: It is not a political issue. (Interruptions)

SHRI V. NARAYANASAMY: We want the Prime Minister to come and make a statement on the release of water by Karnataka to Tamil Nadu and Pondicherry, both. We want the Prime Minister to come. We want the Prime Minister to respond. The Parliamentary Affairs Minister is sitting here. (Interruptions)

SHRI V. GOPALSAMY: There is plenty of water in Karnataka. (Interruptions)

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: All of you, please take your seats. (Interruptions)

SHRI V. GOPALSAMY: This shows the callous attitude of the Central Government. (Interruptions)

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: The Prime Minister is in the other House. Mr Malaviya will convey your feelings (Interruptions)

THE MINISTER OF PETROLEUM AND CHEMICALS AND PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS (SHRI SATYA PRAKASH MALAVIYA): I have heard the hon. Members. The Prime Minister is busy in the other House. He will apprise the Members at the appropriate time

SHRI V. NARAYANASAMY: What is the appropriate time?

SHRI V. GOPALSAMY: What is the meaning of 'the appropriate time'?

SHRI S. K. T. RAMACHANDRAN (Tamil Nadu): The Government

[Shri S K. T Ramachandran]

must understand the gravity of the situation (Interruptions)

SHRI V. NARAYANASAMY What is this? The Government has to intervene. (Interruptions)

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN You speak and then I will allow Shrimati Margaret Alva.

SHRI S. K. T. RAMACHANDRAN: We do not want discussion We want water to save our people It is a life and death problem We do not want to seek protection under the guise of law We want water immediately

SHRI V GOPALSAMY: It is a criminal callousness of this Government (Interruptions)

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN. Please take your seat. (Interruptions). Mr. Jadhav, Maharashtra does not have any problem. Please sit down.

SHRI VITHALRAO MADHAVRAO JADHAV (Maharashtra): Madam, being an agriculturist I am concerned about it. It is the question of agriculturists, it is the question of farmers where the crops are withering away, fading away for want of water. (Interruptions).

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Special mention. (Interruptions). All right, you speak.

SHRI K. G. MAHESWARAPPA (Karnataka): Madam, I want to make a submission. Let them hear me. All along the stand taken by the Government of Karnataka, whether it is the Congress Government or the previous Government, has been that this matter regarding water dispute should be decided amicably but they had been insisting on a tribunal and a tribunal was constituted. (Interruptions). Let me finish.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Mr. Gopalsamy, if you say anything it will not go on record. Now anybody speaking without my permission will not go on record. (Interruptions) It won't go on record I have identified him Anybody else speaking without my permission will not go on record.

SHRI K G MAHESWARAPPA: Please hear me It is in the interest of both the States. (Interruptions). I will be helping you When the matter was before the Tribunal, they never made any serious attempt to negotiate with the State Government of Karnataka. They filed an application for interim order, argued. (Interruptions) Hear me. I do not go out of the way. If at all I make a submission it will help you. The Karnataka people are not unreasonable at any time, take it from me. (Interruptions). What can I do?

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Shrimati Margaret Alva. Let her say what she wants to say.

SHRI K. G. MAHESWARAPPA: Our case all along was that the Central Government should interfere and negotiate. (Interruptions). They do not want to hear inconvenient things (Interruptions)

SHRIMATI MARGARET ALVA (Karnataka) One minute. Let me also speak.

... (Interruptions) ...

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Mr. Gopalsamy, you were given an opportunity. Please don't stretch it too far

SHRI K. G MAHESWARAPPA: I am speaking only on Karnataka.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN. I have been very kind to you. You better sit down. I allowed you. It is enough. Every Member has a right to express his opinion. You cannot impose yourself by your voice and subdue every other voice. Let her say what she wants to say. You said what you wanted to say. Let her also say... (Interruptions)... If you are behaving like this, how are you going to solve the problem? Are you going to solve the problem amid noise in the House or what? Let her say what she wants to say

SHRI K G MAHESWARAPPA I will finish in one minute I am on my legs I have not yet finished I am supporting you We are not sailing in the same boat

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN That is all right now

SHRI K G MAHESWARAPPA I am on my legs, I have not yet completed Madam, as I was saying, they were insisting on an interim order Of course, the Tribunal has rejected the application of Tamil Nadu on technical grounds

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Now it is over

SHRI K G MAHESWARAPPA: What is it, Madam? I have not yet come to the point.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: You are keeping on saying and repeating everything again and again.

SHRI K G MAHESWARAPPA: Previously also, when Karnataka was generous enough to give water whenever (Interruptions) We are prepared to go before any Tribunal All right, let us take it to a Tribunal (Interruptions)

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN Please sit down Mrs. Margaret Alva. Now, Mr Maheswarappa, your submission is over (Interruptions) . Now, you have completed. It is for the Chair to realize when to stop you It is not for you to decide how long you are going to speak Otherwise, what am I here for? Please sit down . (Interruptions) . Yes, Mrs. Alva

SHRI K G MAHESWARAPPA: Whoever has got more lung power, he gets the chance .. .(Interruptions)

SHRIMATI MARGARET ALVA: Madam, we appreciate that there is a problem in Tamil Nadu at the moment—we are not denying it There are compulsions on both sides They wanted a Tribunal and the V P Singh Government appointed a Tribunal Even though we pleaded that this must be mutually settled by us among ourselves and come to some understanding, Tamil Nadu did not want it Today something has happened and the Tribunal has said, "We are not giving an interim order, you wait till the end" (Interruptions)

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Let her say (Interruptions) You are not the Government Let her speak I say, she has the right to make her point Don't interrupt

SHRIMATI MARGARET ALVA I say, if there is a genuine need, it is for the Chief Minister to speak to the Karnataka Chief Minister (Interruptions)

SHRI T R BALU He has had many talks. (Interruptions)

SHRI V GOPALSAMY Why (Interruptions).. .

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN Mr. Gopalsamy, please don't shout like this against a woman Please let her make her point Don't raise your voice in the House Let her say what she wants to say SHRIMATI MARGARET ALVA: When it suits them they want a Tribunal, and when the Tribunal does not go in their favour they want the Central Government to intervene. This is a matter on which there must be an understanding between the two States . (Interruptions)... What is the meaning of saying "Give us water" here when it has to be settled between the two States?

....(Interruptions) .

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN. The water matter is closed now.. .(Interruptions)....

SHRI PASUMPON THA. KIRUTTINAN (Tamil Nadu): We are already starving and....
...(Interruptions)...

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: We have already taken 34 minutes on it It is over now.

SHRI CHATURANAN MISHRA (Bihar) Is the Prime Minister going to make a statement on it?. .(Interruptions) ..

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN. I will find out and let you know.

SHRI CHATURANAN MISHRA The Minister for Parliamentary Affairs has said that the Prime Minister will make a statement at the appropriate time Is it today? I just want to seek a clarification from the Minister if "appropriate time" means today.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN· I will find out and let you know Please take your seat I think nobody can give an assurance Please, Mishraji, you are a senior Member.

SHRI SATYA PRAKASH MALAVIYA: The Prime Minister is coming at 3 00 p m to make a statement on SAARC I will apprise him and he will himself apprise the Members.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN. All right. He is coming

SHRI PARVATHANENI UPENDRA (Andhra Pradesh). He has made a statement in the Lok Sabha

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN· All right He said, he would be coming at the appropriate time You do not know the meaning of appropriate time when it is convenient for us also. To allow the Prime Minister to make a statement we should have some time He cannot come immediately from the Lok Sabha Okay.

The matter is over. We have closed the water problem in this House at least.

Re. ENQUIRY INTO FOREIGN ACCOUNTS OF MR. AJEYA SINGH

SHRI R. K. DHAWAN (Andhra Pradesh): Madam, I have to mention an important matter.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN. No water.

SHRI R K DHAWAN No water (Interruptions)

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN Yes

SHRI R K DHAWAN. That is not available

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN· Let it go down the drain Your matter should come.

SHRI R K DHAWAN Madam, on the 29th of May, 1990 I brought to your notice and, through you, to the notice of this august House the manner in which the then Prime Minister's office tried to scuttle certain enquiries that were being conducted against the alleged foreign accounts of the then Prime Minister's son. At that time I mentioned that immediately after assuming . . .

SHRI S JAIPAL REDDY (Andhra Pradesh). What is the rule?

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN· The same under which Tamil Nadu water was raised. . . (Interruptions) .

SHRI R K DHAWAN· Probably he himself may be a party to get the whole thing stopped. That is why he does not want to be exposed.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN You know it is the same rule under which the water issue was raised in the zero hour as you call it In the same way he is making his mention. (Interruptions)

SHRI R. K. DHAWAN: No action has been taken. I want to draw the attention of the House. (Interruptions)

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Please let him say. I have identified him. I
